What's covered in full?

Here are some commonly used Preventive Care services* that are covered in full:

- Adult annual physical examinations
- Adult immunizations
- Bone mineral density measurements or testing
- Family planning and reproductive health services
- Mammograms
- Well-baby and well-child care
- Well-woman examinations

Deductibles and your plan

Your plan includes a deductible.

A deductible health plan is designed to help keep premium costs low. Your plan includes a deductible, which means you will pay a negotiated, allowed amount that must be met before your insurance pays towards medical services. The deductible applies to some medical care, but does not apply to Preventive Care* and Mental Health visits, which are covered in full, or prescription drugs, including diabetic drugs and supplies. After your deductible is met, you will pay a copay or coinsurance for most medical services.

Medical diagnosis-driven services for certain chronic conditions are now included as preventive services that are covered in front of the deductible for Deductible HSA Non-Standard plans (applicable cost shares, such as copays or coinsurance may apply)

Prescription drugs and your plan

You can get a prescription filled at the copay or coinsurance level on the first day your coverage begins.

Other things to know about your plan

1 How does the money I pay toward my deductible add up (or aggregate)?

This amount and how it adds up can vary depending on which plan you have. Log into UniveraHealthcare.com/Member to view your benefits and learn what your amount is.

- Individual Aggregation: Each covered family member only needs to satisfy their own individual deductible, not the entire family deductible, before plan benefits kick in. This option is often more attractive to families because claims for individuals will be covered when that individual meets their single deductible, regardless of whether or not other family members have met theirs.

2 How much will I pay out-of-pocket for this plan? And how does it add up (or aggregate)?

To help limit your out-of-pocket costs, all of our plans have a maximum amount that any one person will pay. This is called an out-of-pocket maximum.

This amount and how it adds up can vary depending on which plan you have. Log into UniveraHealthcare.com/Member to view your benefits and learn what your amount is.

- Individual Aggregation: With individual aggregation, each family member only needs to meet their own maximum before services are covered in full.

3 What kind of funding accounts work with this plan?

This plan qualifies for a Flexible Spending Account (FSA) or Health Reimbursement Account (HRA).

Important terms

Coinsurance:

Coinsurance is similar to a copay, but instead of a fixed-dollar amount, you pay a percentage of the negotiated, allowed amount. For example: You need crutches and your bill is $100. If your coinsurance is 15%, that means you pay $15 and the insurance company pays the remaining $85.

Copays:

A fixed amount you pay each time you use a medical service, like a doctor's visit. For example: If your plan's coverage includes a $20 copay for a Primary Care Provider (PCP), you pay $20 for each visit to your PCP, and the insurance company pays for the rest.

Deductible:

An amount of money you have to pay before the health insurance company will make any payment toward your health care services. For example: If you have a $3,000 deductible, you pay 100% of the negotiated, allowed amount of your first $3,000 in medical bills. After you reach your deductible amount, you may pay a portion of your health care costs and your health insurance company will pay the rest.

Out-of-pocket maximum:

An annual limit on the amount of money that you pay for health care services, not including your monthly premiums.
